Div. No.: _____

JURY TRIAL DEMANDED

PETITION

COMES NOW Plaintiff, by and through her undersigned counsel, and for her claims and causes of action against Defendants Michael Dixon and Davis Mail Services, Inc., states:

Parties and Jurisdiction

1. At all times relevant herein, Plaintiff Elizabeth Claypool (herein "Claypool" or "Plaintiff") was a resident of the State of Missouri.

2. At all times relevant herein, Defendant Michael Dixon (herein "Dixon") was a resident of the State of Illinois.

3. At all times relevant herein, Defendant Davis Mail Services, Inc. ("Davis") was a foreign corporation with its principal place of business in the State of Florida.

4. At all times relevant herein, Defendant Dixon was an agent and/or employee of Defendant Davis and was acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant Davis.

5. The events described herein occurred on Interstate 64 in the City of St. Louis, Missouri, and therefore jurisdiction and venue are proper.

Facts Common to All Counts

6. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Petition as if fully plead herein.

7. On or about July 6, 2020, Plaintiff Elizabeth Claypool was driving eastbound on Interstate 64 in St. Louis, Missouri.

8. Because of a crash which occurred several cars in front of Plaintiff, Plaintiff had to come to a stop.

9. At the same time, Defendant Dixon was operating a commercial motor vehicle owned by Defendant Davis along the same stretch of road in the eastbound direction, immediately behind Plaintiff.

10. Defendant Dixon failed to stop, swerve, or slacken his speed so as to avoid striking the rear of Plaintiff's vehicle.

11. Defendant Dixon struck the rear of Plaintiff's vehicle, forcing her car forward into the car stopped in front of her.

12. Plaintiff became injured when her vehicle was struck from behind by Defendant Dixon's vehicle.

Count I – Negligence of Michael Dixon

13. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Petition as if fully plead herein.

14. Defendant Dixon, as the driver of a motor vehicle on the roads of the State of Missouri, has a duty to drive his vehicle in a very careful and prudent manner so as not to endanger the property of another, or the life or limb of any person, and a duty to exercise the highest degree of care.

15. Defendant Dixon breached his duty of care in one or more of the following ways:

- a. He knew, or by the use of the highest degree of care, could have known that there was a reasonable likelihood of collision in time thereafter to have stopped, swerved, slacken his speed, and/or sounded a warning, but failed to do so;
- b. He failed to keep a careful lookout; and/or
- d. He drove at an excessive speed.

16. As a direct and proximate result of one or more of the foregoing acts or omissions of Defendant Dixon, Plaintiff Elizabeth Claypool sustained severe injuries including, but not limited to, injuries to her back, neck, and shoulder; she has suffered great pain of the mind and body and will continue to suffer great pain of mind and body; she sustained a significant loss of mobility and disability; she has sought and received medical care and attention, and her ability to enjoy the ordinary pursuits of life has been permanently impaired and diminished.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Elizabeth Claypool prays for judgment against Defendant Michael Dixon on Count I of this Petition in an amount in excess of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars that is fair, just and reasonable under the circumstances, and such other and further Orders that seem just and proper.

Count II – Respondeat Superior of Davis Mail Services, Inc.

17. Plaintiff incorporates all preceding paragraphs of this Petition as if fully plead herein.

18. Plaintiff's injuries were caused by the tortious and negligent conduct of Defendant Davis's agent and/or employee, Michael Dixon.

19. Defendant Dixon's tortious and negligent conduct was performed while he was acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant Davis.

20. Defendant Dixon, as the driver of a motor vehicle on the roads of the State of Missouri, has a duty to drive his vehicle in a very careful and prudent manner so as not to endanger the property of another, or the life or limb of any person, and a duty to exercise the highest degree of care.

21. Defendant Dixon breached his duty of care in one or more of the following ways:

- a. He knew, or by the use of the highest degree of care, could have known that there was a reasonable likelihood of collision in time thereafter to have stopped, swerved, slacken his speed, and/or sounded a warning, but failed to do so;
- b. He failed to keep a careful lookout; and/or
- d. He drove at an excessive speed.

22. As a direct and proximate result of one or more of the foregoing acts or omissions of Defendant Dixon while acting in the course and scope of his employment with Defendant Davis, Plaintiff Elizabeth Claypool sustained severe injuries including, but not limited to, injuries to her back, neck, and shoulder; she has suffered great pain of the mind and body and will continue to suffer great pain of mind and body; she sustained a significant loss of mobility and disability; she has sought and received medical care and attention, and her ability to enjoy the ordinary pursuits of life has been permanently impaired and diminished.

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff Elizabeth Claypool prays for judgment against Defendant Davis Mail Services on Count II of this Petition in an amount in excess of Twenty-Five Thousand Dollars that is fair, just and reasonable under the circumstances, and such other and further Orders that seem just and proper.

Directions to Officer Making Return on Service of Summons

A copy of the summons and a copy of the motion must be served on each defendant/respondent. If any defendant/respondent refuses to receive the copy of the summons and motion when offered, the return shall be prepared accordingly so as to show the offer of the officer to deliver the summons and motion and the defendant's/respondent's refusal to receive the same.

Service shall be made: (1) On Individual. On an individual, including an infant or incompetent person not having a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the individual personally or by leaving a copy of the summons and motion at the individual's dwelling house or usual place of abode with some person of the family over 15 years of age who permanently resides with the defendant/respondent, or by delivering a copy of the summons and petition to an agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (2) On Guardian. On an infant or incompetent person who has a legally appointed guardian, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to the guardian personally; (3) On Corporation, Partnership or Other Unincorporated Association. On a corporation, partnership or unincorporated association, by delivering a copy of the summons and motion to an officer, partner, or managing or general agent, or by leaving the copies at any business office of the defendant/respondent with the person having charge thereof or by delivering copies to its registered agent or to any other agent authorized by appointment or required by law to receive service of process; (4) On Public or Quasi-Public Corporation or Body. Upon a public, municipal, governmental or quasi-public corporation or body in the case of a county, to the mayor or city clerk or city attorney in the case of a city, to the chief executive officer in the case of any public, municipal, governmental, or quasi-public corporation or body or to any person otherwise lawfully so designated.

Service may be made by an officer or deputy authorized by law to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where such service is made.

Service may be made in any state or territory of the United States. If served in a territory, substitute the word "territory" for the word "state."

The officer making the service must swear an affidavit before the clerk, deputy clerk, or judge of the court of which the person is an officer or other person authorized to administer oaths. This affidavit must state the time, place, and manner of service, the official character of the affiant, and the affiant's authority to serve process in civil actions within the state or territory where service is made.

Service must be made less than 10 days nor more than 30 days from the date the defendant/respondent is to appear in court. The return should be made promptly, and in any event so that it will reach the Missouri court within 30 days after service.
